

POISON IN THE ASHES.
What the Mt. Lebanon Shakers Found
Incident in the History of a Quiet Community.

The Mount Lebanon [New York] Shakers are a quiet community, secluded from the fret and worry of the outside world; they are widely known, however, for their strict honor and probity in business.

The Shakers believe that nature has a remedy for every disease. A few have been found—the rest are as yet unknown. Many were discovered by accident. Others came to light as the result of patient experiment and research.

Nervous Dyspepsia is a comparatively new disease, growing out of the conditions of modern life. It is a joint affection of the digestive organs and of the nervous system; these two were formerly treated as separate ailments, and it was left for the clear-sighted Shakers to prove that the basis of this terrible and often fatal complication lies chiefly in the disordered and depraved functions of digestion and nutrition; they reasoned thus: "If we can induce the stomach to do its work, and stimulate the excretive organs to drive out of the body the poisonous waste matter which remain after the life-giving elements of the food have been absorbed, we shall have conquered nervous dyspepsia and nervous exhaustion, and they were right. Knowing the invaluable power of Shaker Extract [Siegel's Syrup] in less complicated though similar diseases, they resolved to test it fully in this; leave no ground for doubt they prescribed the remedy in hundreds of cases which had been pronounced incurable—in perfect success in every instance where their directions to living and diet were scrupulously followed. Nervous dyspepsia and exhaustion is a peculiarly American disease. To greater or less extent half the people of this country suffer from it, both sexes and all ages. No country in the world are there so many insane asylums filled to overflowing, all resulting from this alarming disease. Its leading symptoms are these: frequent or continual headache, a dull pain at the base of the brain, bad breath, mucus eruptions, the rising of sour and pungent fluids to the throat, a sense of oppression and faintness at the pit of the stomach, flatulence, wakefulness and loss of sleep, disgust with food even when weak from the need of it, sticky or slimy matter on the teeth or in the mouth, especially on rising in the morning, tattered and coated tongue, dull eyes, cold hands and feet, constipation, dry or rough skin, inability to fix the mind on any labor calling for continuous attention, and oppressive and sad forebodings and fears.

All this terrible group Shaker Extract [Siegel's Syrup] moves by its positive, powerful, direct yet painless and action upon the functions of digestion and assimilation.

These elements of the

that build up and strengthen the system are sent on their mission, while all the matters [the ashes of the fire] which, unremoved, poison and kill, are expelled from the body through the lungs, kidneys and skin. The sick and prostrated nerves are quieted, toned and fed by a purified blood. As the salt, health, with its joys, turns to the sufferer who had perhaps abandoned all hope of seeing another well day.

Anti-Prohibition.

The following report appeared in Sunday morning's EXAMINER:

"There was quite a large attendance at the meeting of the anti-prohibitionists. Judge L. C. Alexander was made permanent chairman and Mr. W. A. Avery, Jr., secretary. The chapter appointed Messrs. D. H. Hardy, R. D. Goode and A. E. Osborn as a committee to suggest the names of twenty-five delegates to be sent to the Dallas convention. This committee reported the following names, which were accepted:

L. C. Alexander, Geo. Clark, R. H. Harrison, Dr. H. L. Parsons, W. W. Matan, W. S. Baker, Wm. Brewster, John McGhee, J. B. Baker, J. Branch, W. B. Taylor, J. K. Rose, Robt. J. Goode, M. C. H. Park, Hugh Thompson, J. A. Solomon, A. E. Osborn, Sam Sanger, Tom Padgett, S. L. Samuels, M. Guion, John L. Bartow, Joe Eiken and G. B. Gerald.

This is incorrect. The delegates were chosen to the McLennan county convention, which meets in this city April 23. This county convention will choose delegates to the Dallas convention, which meets May 4.
